

Media, minds and neuroscience:
The developing brain in a media-rich environment.

NSW Parliament House Theatrette, Friday Oct 4 2013, 9am to 4pm

PROGRAM

Registration from 8.30am

Chair: Prof Elizabeth Handsley, President Australian Council on Children and the Media

9.10 Welcome and opening remarks

The Hon Greg Donnelly MLC, Parliament of New South Wales

Prof Elizabeth Handsley, Professor of Law, Flinders University

9.30 Associate Professor Michael Nagel: What makes them tick? Understanding the developing adolescent brain

10.10 Dr Wayne Warburton: Screen in the machine: What brain imaging studies tell us about the impact of violent media

10.50 Morning tea

11.10 Baroness Susan Greenfield: New media and young brains

11.55 Lynne Malcolm (ABC Radio National All in the Mind): Guest Facilitator for discussion of morning session

12.25 Lunch

1.15 Dr Philip Tam: Problematic Internet use in young people: Evolution of a 21st Century disorder.

1.45 Dr Kate Highfield: Upwardly mobile – young children’s use of mobile technologies as a tool for learning.

2.15 Prof Graham Vimpani AM: What does it all mean for parents and those from whom they seek advice?

3.00 Afternoon tea

3.20 Panel discussion: Facilitator Prof Elizabeth Handsley

4.00 Close.